

ANCIENT EGYPT and TUTANKHAMEN

with Chris Bradley

9:45 Coffee/Tea on arrival in the bar.

10:30 – 11:30 LECTURE 1 – The Beginning of Ancient Egypt.

What were the conditions for the start of the Ancient Egyptians in both Upper and Lower Egypt? Why were they so fascinated with the elaborate artwork of tomb decoration and what was the real history behind the Old Kingdom pyramids?

11:30 – 11:45 Comfort break only – Please be in your seat in good time for Lecture 2.

11:45 – 12:45 LECTURE 2 – Egypt as the dominant power during the New Kingdom.

A series of famous pharaohs such as Tutmoses, Amenhotep and Queen Hatshepsut ushered in a period of brilliant art and architecture which was ruthlessly abandoned by the heretic Akhenaten. It was up to his young son Tutankhamen to try and restore normality.

13:00 – 14:30 Two-course Luncheon & Tea/Coffee (Pay Bar is available)

14:30 – 15:30 LECTURE 3 – The Search for Tutankhamen.

An unlikely hero by the name of Howard Carter slowly worked his way from untrained artist to look into the eyes of Tutankhamen's golden death mask. It was the world's greatest archaeological discovery, but why did he not get any official recognition or reward after a lifetime's service?
